Local Groups To Act on Chaffey Bond Sum

Keeping Up - -

With Uplanders

By V. V. P.

CHARLIE'S PARAGRAPHS

Charles St. Peters is the local agent for the Santa Fe Railway. He is also an editor — editor of The Upland Lions club bulletin. Charlie gets very intimate in his reporting on his fellow Lions, such as:

"Don Maroney's little girl said there was a new baby at her house.

"Has the baby come to stay? she was asked.

" 'I think so,' she said. 'It's taken all its things off.'

"When Harold Musser was a baby he cried: 'I'm fed up on that," pointing to his high chair.

"Cowboy to Bill Gilliland (on dude ranch): 'Do you want a horn on your saddle?' Bill: 'No. Doesn't seem to be much traffic out here.' "

And then he concludes:

"Never miss an opportunity to make others happy — even if you have to let them alone to do it."

ANY VOTES CHANGED

It would be an interesting poll to determine if any votes are changed as the leading presidential campaigners speak.

In general, people who are strong Democrats, listen to and read about the standard bearers. Likewise, Republicans closely follow the campaign as conducted by President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon.

This will be going on until Nov. 5. In the meantime, have any votes been changed? We doubt if there are many.

It might be just as well for all practical purposes to hold the election within a few days after the presidential conven after the presidential conventions.

We have tried to change some voters' minds — but that is almost hopeless. Either people are for "Ike" or they are against him.

PURE FOOTBALL

Fellows like Harold W. Cook, Henry Busch and other alumni of the California schools really do not know what a thrill it is to have come from a college at which the football team is "pure."

In a week, the "purest" of the pure schools in the Pacific Coast conference — Oregon State college — will be in Los Angeles for a Coliseum visit.

FASTENED DOWN

Well, the postal authorities have finally caught up with us — and the general public. New ball point pens are now in use in the Upland post office as well as the other offices in the area.

These nice, modern pens are fastened down — impossible to get 'em away. When Al Ray told us about the addition of ball pointers to the public service, we hurried to investigate and found the post office is going to keep 'em.

With the coming of the ball pointers, the usual jokes about the postal pen points must go out of style. We have tried enough of the pen points next door to our office to not even be interested in using them. Now we have the assurance that when we can't find a ready pen in our office, we can step east a few feet and be sure of finding one all securely fastened with a chain.

$25 C. OF C. DUES

The Upland business district needs a very active promotional agency — and payment of $25 dues by local members can provide a little money for that purpose. Very little, if anything, could be accomplished with a $10 fee.

Several new firms and individuals have joined the Upland civic group for the first time — and all regular members will find it a good investment to continue their membership at the higher rate.

HI CHUCK

The Upland News has a very faithful reader who may be at this moment in an airplane between the Pacific Coast and the Orient. He does that often as a commercial pilot — and occasionally he writes to us from far-away places.

And so we are hereby acknowledging his latest communication. He says he reads this column and so we are greeting him in this paragraph.

Lester Guertin is now a member of the armed services, being at Fort Ord for reassignment. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Guertin, 257 Euclid Pl. The new soldier is a graduate of Loyola university.

Parking District Decision Will Come On Oct. 4

Many people — and many local business developments — are awaiting outcome of the application to the city of Upland for the formation of a parking assessment district.

Public hearing on the proposed plan of forming a downtown parking program will be held by the Upland city council Oct. 4. Persons in favor and against may be heard and at conclusion of the hearing, the councilmen will decide.

If the decision is in favor of forming the district, various legal steps will be taken. One step will concern purchase of the four proposed sites for the off-street parking of cars. Another step will be the sale of bonds to provide $204,000 for purchase of the property, removal of the present dwellings on the parking sites and for improvements.

While a big majority of persons and owners of the downtown property are favorable to the proposal, strong opposition is forecast from a group of First Ave. residents and others. Formal protests are to be made in writing and filed with City Clerk Hazel Cassell prior to the hearing.

Just as is the case in any zone change, the councilmen themselves have the power to say "yes" or "no" to formation of the district.

It is known, however, that the councilmen in general favor the downtown project unless some new development is offered at the public hearing.

Included in the parking district in general is the area from A to D Sts. and from the east side of Euclid Ave. to the east side of Third Ave. Three of the parking sites are scheduled for the east side of First Ave. One is to be immediately south of Clint's market; another one between the Upland Inn and Fetrow's Service station and the third between C St. and the Pacific Electric right-of-way.

The fourth parking lot would be on the west side of Third Ave. between the former Nazarene church and the residence at C St. and Third Ave.

If the Oct. 4 decision is favorable for the district, several business properties will change hands and new retail outlets will be located here.

Radio Staff Busy On Programs

Radio Broadcast From Upland To Be Widely Heard

The name of Upland and Upland college are to be heard by millions of people as the result of arrangements made by the Upland college for radio broadcasts on 20 stations in the nation and two stations in foreign countries.

Brethren in Christ church is sponsoring the broadcasts, which will go out under the name of "Gems of Grace". The half-hour broadcasts are now in production on the campus. Designed as 30 minutes of thought and music, the program follows a devotional type format and is beamed specifically to the non-churched listener.

After a year of research and development the new radio series is now being released to all members of Upland College faculty. Rev. Owen Alderfer, 870 W. Arrow Hwy. is the religious director of the college and radio

Mayor Honors Business Women

National Business Women's week, Sept. 23 through Sept. 29, has been officialy proclaimed in Upland by Mayor E. Tweed Stone.

"This annual week, sponsored throughout the United States by the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's club, is set aside to pay tribute to women in business and the professions, and the contribution they make to the nation," the proclamation under his signature reads.

Council To Get College Heights Annexation Report

Final chapter in the current movement of College Heights to become part of the city of Upland may be written at tonight's Upland city council meeting.

City Attorney Henry M. Busch and City Clerk Hazel Cassell will report to the councilmen on the fact that enough formal complaints had been filed Sept. 6 to defeat the annexation proceedings.

Juvenile Officer To Be Named By City Today

Announcement of the new juvenile officer for Upland is scheduled to be made at the meeting of the Upland city council tonight, following an oral examination of six candidates last night.

Earlier, the men, all members of the Upland police department, had passed a written examination. On the board to personally interview the applicants were Komer Dyal, San Bernardino sheriff's department; Roger Sagouspe, Ontario city juvenile officer; Father Joe Erickson Jr. of St. Mark's Episcopal church, Francis Shaw, representing the local P-T As and Elwin Alder, city manager.

Candidates are Joseph Blouin, Verne Colvin, Tom Davis, Richrad Carr, Bill Smith and Felix Quesada.

The board will also recommend one of the officers to be named sergeant, this appointment to fill a vacancy. The position of juvenile officer is new in the department in that the appointee will give primary attention to youths involved with infractions and assist where else he might. Previously, one of the personnel has carried the title of juvenile officer and gave most of his attention to regular patrol duties.

The change in status for the juvenile officer came about as the result of a united appeal from many parents for a person to specialize in this field. Following appointment of the officer, he will be given special training to fit him for the position.

Plunge Plans Being Prepared

Definite building plans for the construction of a plunge on the Upland high school campus have been ordered prepared.

Neptune & Thomas, architects, were authorized by the Chaffey board of education Monday night, to prepare plans with bids scheduled to be sought at an early date.

Site of the plunge on the Upland high school campus is immediately north of the gymnasium, extending from the gym, northward to a point near Foothill Blvd.

A football stadium will eventually be placed immediately west of the plunge site, according to Alexander McLeish, principal.

45 Star Flag Library Display

Daughters of the American Revolution, San Antonio chapter have a 45 star U.S. flag on display in the Upland Public Library calling public attention to the fact that this is Constitution week.

Mrs. Robt. Sappenfield, librarian, has arranged a suitable display of books on the display case where the flag is shown. Library workers had a difficult time arranging the flag, as they well know the etiquette of displaying the flag. In view of the fact that it is not the official flag and because of space available the flag has been folded as it is a very large flag.

The flag, formerly belonging to the late Mrs. Minnie Cool Holding of Ontario was presented to the San Antonio chapter by Mrs. G. W. Patzold.

Hostess For The Upland News

Mrs. J. W. Symonds, Jr., is the hostess for the Upland News in calling on all newcomers in Upland, Alta Loma, Cucamonga and Etiwanda. She will also visit in the homes of all non-subscribers in Upland and the foothill communities. The News' hostess is the former Nancy Hennessy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hennessy, 366 Van Ness Ave.

School Attendance Now Totals 1,935

Seventy more students are in the Upland schools today than at the start of the new year.

Enrollment now is 1935 as compared with the first day total of 1865, according to Superintendent Harold W. Cook.

Four Fires On Sunday Keep Uplanders Busy

Four alarms, three grass fires, and one to a burning car on the San Bernardino freeway, kept the fire squad on the jump. No loss was reported.

Newcomers To Get Visit From Nancy Symonds

Mrs. Nancy Hennessy Symonds is today the hostess for The Upland News.

She will personally call on every newcomer in Upland, Alta Loma, Cucamonga and Etiwanda to welcome people to this area — as well as to arrange for all of them to become regular subscribers to The News.

Mrs. Symonds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hennessy of Upland, will also call on every non-subscriber in the foothill communities. While The News already goes into the homes of most of the residents in this area, Mrs. Symonds will make daily visits throughout the community in the interests of The News.

A graduate of Chaffey high school and junior college, Mrs. Symonds made an enviable record on the campus as a public speaker and a leader in dramatics. With her husband, J. W. Symonds Jr., she resides at 283 S. Third Ave. Her parents reside at 366 Van Ness Ave.

"It is a real thrill to see how the newcomers respond to a call from an Upland News representative," the winsome hostess said. "In fact, every person with whom I come in contact seems to enjoy a call from a representative of The News. I hope to make friends for each of the communities in The News' circulation area and to tell everyone about the communities' advantages, as well as about the complete news coverage of the local newspaper."

Committees To Seek Solution For Classrooms

Residents in Upland and the foothill communities will have a voice in determining the amount to be voted on in the forthcoming Chaffey school bond election.

At least two local committees will be formed to coordinate the local expressions with Ontario citizens in the preliminaries prior to the setting of a figure.

W. W. Woodward, chairman of the committee for formation of a separate high school district, will meet with Robert Hickcox, Etiwanda, and Howard Kilmurray, Alta Loma, and Mrs. James Mertz, Upland, tonight in a preliminary study. Another committee, headed by John B. Atwood, will include Upland chamber of commerce members. Named on his committee are Allan S. Barr, Ted Atwood, Jarvis J. Leman and Vernon V. Paine.

Chaffey board of education members Monday night assured all leaders in the district that a bond election would not be called until there was apparent agreement among the citizens on the amount to be asked for.

General sentiment in the foothill area is for a bond issue large enough to provide high school classrooms when needed, rather than to have bond elections every year or so. General estimates place this figure upwards of $10,000,000.

In the meantime, steps are being taken to aid the board members in obtaining accurate estimates of costs of additional high school sites in Cucamonga and Etiwanda, a junior college site north of Foothill Blvd., and a

The building department, headed by Richard Derby, will move to the present location of the water department. The new telephone system switchboard will be in the water department office.

Cucamonga Lions Win First Prize

Assistance League Planning Busy, Useful Work Program

"Our aim this year is to increase our efficiency in all that we undertake and to improve our last year's work in all departments," Mrs. Wayne F. Cameron, president, told members of the Assistance League of Upland at the first meeting, held Tuesday, in the Wendell Prough home, 404 Armsley Sq., Ontario.

Following completion of her brief talk, Mrs. Cameron introduced provisional members, Mmes. George A. Chalfant, Clifford Downing, Frank Hutchinson, Harold H. Royaltey, and Robert Thrall. She expressed pleasure in the return of Mrs. Robert S. Walline and Mrs. Walter E. Stewart to active status.

Plans were formulated for the patroness tea to be held Oct. 16 in the home of Mrs. Norman Lawson, 1705 Wilson Ave. Mrs. John F. Anderson, general chairman for the event, will be assisted by Mmes. Cameron, Prough, Rolph Fairchild and Richard DuVall.

Mrs. John F. Anderson, ways and means chairman, announced a meeting of her committees for the Mistletoe ball and the Valentine dance, in her home, 329 Armsley Sq., Ontario, Oct. 2, 10 a.m.

Mrs. Herbert R. Van Brunt has been appointed general chairman for the Mistletoe ball, scheduled for Dec. 14, in Red Hill Country clubhouse and Mrs. Thomas Dugan will head the Valentine dance committee. It will be held Feb. 15.

Mrs. Floyd G. Allen, chairman of the Cucamonga Youth Center, reported a successful summer program. Two groups of girls met for Girls' Club activities each Tuesday, under direction of Mrs. Maud M. Linsley and Mrs. Jay R. Thrasher. The Jesters, a recently organized group of teenage boys, held three successful dances under the sponsorship of Dave Johnson. David Hernandez assisted Mr. Johnson in supervising the group's activities. The Jesters plan to hold dances twice monthly during the coming year.

Mrs. Allen also reported purchase, by Upland Rotary club, of a four speed portable record player to be used for dances and other youth activities in the center. In addition, Rotarians are assuming cost of installing a new floor in the building.

Mrs. George E. Yetter will serve as co-chairman with Mrs. Allen on this committee and other members will be Mmes. Thrall, Wilbur J. Weisbruch and Robt. Buchenau. The committee is completing plans for the Girls' club program for the coming year.

Needs Of Upland High School To Be Listed

What is needed first in additional equipment on the Upland high school campus and what should be included on the campus for 1,800 students are matters up for recommendation by Alexander McLeish, principal, and his staff.

Beginning immediately in preparing for the proposed classroom construction program on the W. 11th St. campus, members of the Chaffey board of education Monday night authorized Mr. McLeish to submit a list of items. He was advised of his assignment Tuesday and said he would gladly analyze the needs and outline a construction program.

In the UCLA report on the long-range educational planning for this area, an Upland high school student body of 1,800 was recommended. While the number of classrooms on the campus is almost sufficient for this size of a student body, other features for a well-rounded secondary campus are needed. A plunge is already scheduled.

Likely to be included in the proposal are an auditorium, a girl's gymnasium, tennis courts and other facilities. Sum of $1,222,800 has been estimated by the UCLA survey team but this figure is regarded by some observers as low.

Leo Wadsworth, junior college director, has been named chairman of the college planning committe.

The display includes tropical and hardy lilies and companion plants and grasses and is attracting many admirers at the fair.

Water Gardens Takes Prizes

Van Ness Water Gardens, operated by Mr. and Mrs. Ted Huber, 2460 N. Euclid Crescent W. won a blue ribbon and a second place trophy for beauty at the Pomona fair. The prizes were for the display of water lilies and other aquatics in the new horticultural building.

The Hubers also won a first for one of the planted pools in the patio area of the hillside. This pool is part of a landscape entered by another exhibitor.

The exhibit in the horticultural building features blue (Pennsylvanias) and the purple (Panama Pacifics). They are tropical lilies. Other lilies floating in the pool are many different colored hardy varieties. Planting also included miniature cattails, equisetum, more commonly known as horses' tail rush and a new plant named giant Arrowhead. Azure Pickerel is also included as are floating water hyacinth and water lettuce which is also known as the shell plant.

Many Buying Houses In Euclid Estates

Crowds of people coming from all over the San Gabriel Valley to see the second unit of Euclid Estates are making sales history, according to Don W. Schmidt, builder and developer.

Uplanders have bought in the new development as well as people from Ontario, Covina, Glendora, Van Nuys and Fontana. The demand for these homes has been so great that 50 percent of the unit was sold before the official opening, continued Mr. Schmidt.

Red Cross Plans Big Year

Changes in committee chairmanships were announced by Harry Dier, chairman, at a board meeting of Upland chapter Red Cross, in the chapter office, Monday night.

Gene Dary was introduced as the new first aid chairman. Mrs. Palmer Bronson was named motor service chairman, replacing Mrs. Paul Kiszeli, who has resigned following her appointment as a social worker for the county.

Francis Wilson, Alta Loma, will represent that community on the board.

Mrs. J. W. Robertson, chairman of volunteers, reported on the added responsibilities of the chapter in regard to the Desert Air Council. Upland chapter is in charge of all correspondence for the council, including meeting notices, as well as minutes of meetings and the request sheets from military installations and hospitals.

The great current need for volunteers to serve as Gray Ladies, staff aides, motor service drives and canteen workers was stressed by Mrs. Robertson who said they are neded for chapter work as well as in camps and hospitals.

Upland chapter will host the first Desert Air Council meeting of the season on Sept. 27.

Mrs. Ralph Hunt, Gray Lady chairman, reported that men as well as women are needed for rewarding volunteer service in the hospitals. Officials at the U.S. Naval hospital, Corona, would especially like to interest men in this service.

"Men like to talk to men," Mrs. Hunt said," and there should be some retired men in this community who would be able to bring a new interest to hospitalized servicemen."

She said there is also a need for broken strings of beads, particularly pearls, old nylon hose for stuffing toys and discarded costume jewelry. Such contributions may be left at Chapter headquarters for delivery where they are most needed.

Mrs. Francis E. Wilson, Upland Junior Red Cross chairman, anounced plans for the usual fall enrollment of the students in local schools. Programs for the young people will answer community needs and promote international relations, she said.

Training courses for social welfare aides will be started early in October, Mrs. Keith Koehler, home service chairman announced, adding that the need in Upland, Alta Loma, Cucamonga and Etiwanda is increasing with the growth of the community. Volunteers to work both in the office and to take calls at home on week-ends and evenings are required.

Mr. Dary, as the first act of his new office, reported on two classes being held in October to certificate first aid instructors. Anyone with a current advanced first aid certificate is eligible. He said at least three new instructors are required in this area to conduct classes for school teachers, bus drivers, Scout leaders and Senior Scouts. He urged those interested to phone him at 2-2513 or the chapter office, 2-3113.

Present in addition to those previously mentioned were Mmes. Thomas Ware, Warren Wass, Mike Siran, Robert Sappenfield, Myrta Crilly, G. H. Ellerbeck, and Eleaner Taylor, executive secretary and Mr. Roy Gustafson.

In 1919 club members acquired sole possession and the club motto had become, "We Build". Mr. Davidson outlined the growth of Kiwanic in the U. S. and Canada and the work that has been done helping others, especially children. He explained that Kiwanis is a coined word.

One-man Police Patrol Cars To Be In Use Soon

Use of one-man police patrol cars in Upland will be started soon and the system gradually extended to include all patrol shifts, Police Chief Ralph H. Palmer explained at a meeting of his staff this week. The meeting of all available officers was held Tuesday morning.

"We are seeking to carry out the recommendations of the Kroeger report and that calls for staggered shifts, more frequent patrols and having only one officer in cars," the departmental leader explained. "It takes special training to enable an officer to handle himself and situations alone and we are arranging to obtain this training of the men."

The vacation season, resignations and the indoctrination of new officers has made it impossible to earlier prepare for the actual use of various recommendations made early this summer by the special firm engaged to analyze the local department. As soon as the personnel is up to normal, Mr. Palmer said the service would get into a more normal routine.

Special instruction is being taken by various policemen. Don Colvin and Wm. White, new patrolmen, have just completed a training school conducted by the sheriff's department in San Bernardino.

A special school for instruction in one-man patrol cars will be held in Ontario soon by the F.B.I.

The California Peace Officers Assn. is conducting a training school in Riverside during October and several officers will be in attendance there. Sgt. Fred Strohte is enrolled in night school at the Valley college in San Bernardino, taking courses in preservation of evidence. As soon as the juvenile officer is appointed by the city council, he will be enrolled in a course at Mt. San Antonio junior college for juvenile court laws and procedures, Mr. Palmer said.

Chaffey Issues Late Enrolment

Revised enrollment figures issued by Allan Smith, assistant superintendent of Chaffey school district show 1276 at Upland High school this year as compared with 719 last year. Enrollment at Chaffey High school is down this year to 2353. It was 2432 in 1955.

Woman's Club Refurnished For Tuesday Tea

A sample of the feathery pampas grass, dyed pink, which will be used as decoration for the new members tea of the Upland Woman's club in the clubhouse Tuesday, was shown board members at a meeting in the clubhouse Wednesday morning. Mrs. C. P. Jacobs, right, presided in the absence of Mrs. Earl Riggs. Left to right are Mrs. Howard T. Weeks, tea chairman; Mrs. G. B. Warders, house chairman and Mrs. L. S. Collins, refreshment chairman. An inspection of the refurnished club was conducted by Mrs. Warders. Members will find the foyer and the south lounge recarpeted in attractive two-tone grey. These rooms have been painted and the south roof renewed. Floors have been refinished and the kitchen painted, Mrs. Warder reported.

The board accepted into membership the 11 new members who will be honored Tuesday.

Other business included discussion of District Federated Woman's Club meeting in Highland, Oct. 10 which Mrs. Jacobs stressed as important in urging that at least 20 Upland Woman's club members attend.

High P-TA Urges Adequate Bond Election

Mrs. Carl Hartig was appointed safety chairman and Mrs. A. B. Mosely publicity chairman, at the first meeting of Highlanders P-T A in the Upland High school Monday night when John Nicholson, president, presided.

The board voted to send a letter to the Chaffey school board thanking board members for their concern and consideration of the inadequate housing situation in the high school district urgently recommending that a bond issue be brought before the public at the earliest possible date, adequate for high school housing needs for all the Chaffey district.

Mrs. Bruce Claflin, vice president, reported on the P-T A convention which she attended in Sacramento. Mrs. L. B. Van Ornam, program chairman, reported on the broad program planning for the year stating the first meeting, Oct. 1, will be a welcome to new staff members and parents. Refreshments will be provided by the board.

Alexander McLeish announced back to school night will be Nov. 3.

Mahers Got To Injured Son

Daniel Richard Maher, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Maher, W. 13th St., was injured Sunday, at Santa Cruz in a surfing accident when he was struck by the surf board ridden by another sportsman.

His parents went to Santa Cruz where he was hospitalized but found his injuries not as serious as indicated at first. He is suffering from a broken cheek bone, not a skull fracture.

Canup Heads Fair Exhibit

Floyd Canup, former secretary of the Chaffey college Young Farmers, displayed plates of miscellaneous fruit at the Young Farmer competition at the Los Angeles county fair.

The fruit display is the last entry of the Young Farmers in their agriculture competition at he fair. Collections previously judged include the feed collections in which Edward Abbond was awarded third; John Arnold, fifth; John Fleming, fourth; and Francis Grove, second. Two other competitions were the field crop seed collections in which Francis Grove was awarded fourth and the flower seed collection in which he placed second.

The collections were those made in class work by Chaffey college students last year. Awards, according to Instructor Peter Tolstoy, were ribbons and money.

Three On J. C. Student Groups

Three members of the Chaffey college student body from Cucamonga and Alta Loma are among the group of college student leaders who have received appointments to faculty committees by Director Leo A. Wadsworth. They will meet with the faculty standing groups which work throughout the year 1956-57.

"We are very happy to have the leaders in the committee," Director Wadsworth said. "I feel that these students will understand the college and faculty more fully than before and the faculty will have an opportunity to get the student point of view at the meetings."

Elsie Carwell becomes a member of the curriculum committee; Larry Collins, the grades committee; and Ann Hayden, the public hospitality committee These are three of the important committees among the 23 which now have student members.

Dr. Ralph W. Lee, president of the Upland Ministerial union and the Rev. A. C. Burkholder, minister of the Brethren in Christ church, also spoke, President John Martin presided. The Mote choir, directed by Royce Saltzman, appeared in musical selections.

MRS. RAYO BRITAIN

Mrs. Sarah Shaffstall, 77, 8930 Belmont, Cucamonga, last year's champion hog caller at the Los Angeles County fair, Pomona, proved a game loser, Tuesday, when she lost her title to John Clar, 28 of San Diego.

Mrs. Rayo Britain of Upland, who entered this year for the first time, placed third and won a large ham as her prize. Wednesday she appeared on a TV program from the fair.

Mrs. Shaffstall, who was very hoarse Wednesday, explained that all of the contestants had a hard time Tuesday as the wind was blowing in their faces. In her own case she said she had sprayed her home with fly repellant and had injured her throat by breathing too much of the spray. "I'm not making excuses", she said. "I just couldn't get my voice up loud enough".

Upland Gridders Ready For Chino

Three Squads Busy In Early Season Play

Upland gridders may not set any scoring records this season — and neither will their opponents.

At least, the defensive strength of the Highlanders is very evident following the scrimmage with San Gabriel high school on the local field Monday afternoon. Gerry Bell, head coach, used every squad member and came up with the conclusion:

"I've got a dandy bunch of hard working kids. We are ahead of last season and the fellows will give a good account of themselves."

Larry Strong has a good name for what he does in the line. That is, he is one of the strong men on the squad, particularly on the defense. Bob Mulligan and Allen Mitchell, Jr. are other bright lights from among the 42 prospects. These were among the mainstays on the 1955 club. Kenneth Matlin and Paul Edwards are hopefuls.

BRIGHT SPOTS

One of the tallest players is Edwards, an end. "He has a lot to learn and the way he goes at it, I am quite sure he is going to see some action before the season is over," Bell said.

It will be a tight battle on the Chino field at 8 p.m. tomorrow. The first game for both teams, Coach Bell expects to use many players with a juggling of the offensive squad to get the best possible combination.

On the opening 11 will be the following: Skip Wulf, Clarence Manning, Jerry Reed, Bob Mulligan, Larry Strong, David Armstrong, Dave Grace, Mike Hanamura, Ruben Luna, Allen Mitchell and Bill Ricci.

B TEAMS HERE

The first local game on the Upland high turf will be at 3 p.m. Friday with the local B's hosting the Chino B. squad.

Fresh from a hard scrimmage with Fontana on Monday, the young Uplanders will put up a strong battle in seeking a victory for the opener. Jerry Kehr and Paul White are the mentors for the squad.

Eyes will be centered on Ed Collins, who scored two nice touch-downs at Fontana, one of them a 50-yard open field run. Frank Batchelor also scored one in the Fontana scrimmage to mark him as a good offensive man.

Coach Kehr will use a couple of dozen players tomorrow. Likely to open are the following from left end across the line: Bob Davis, Larry Chappell, Bob Neville, Kenneth Hotard, John Coe, Jerry Neel and Bruce Kaggie. In the backfield will be Ron Bedus at quarter; Collins and Everett Murphy, half backs and Frank Batchelor, fullback.

On the reserve squad from end to end are Tim Olague, Gene Theines, Dave Powell, Ricardo Lucero, Joe Romolo, Chuck Roloen and Don Stoltz. Backfield players on this squad include Steve Fleming, quarterback; George Davis and Tom Cleveland, halfbacks and Jim Davis, fullbakc.

50 "C" PLAYERS

One of the toughest jobs for Coaches Bill Wolfe and Lloyd Connor of the C squad is the selection of the top squad from among the 50 aspirants.

While several players are outstanding, keen competition prevails for the top spots. Steve Correa, Larry Horak and Jon Kay are the bright spots for the backfield with Dan Lynch and Mike Gates favored at the moment for the signal-calling spot.

It is an interesting rivlary for the end positions among Ed Lewis and Bob Ferguson. Other strong linemen are Dick Stewart, Kenneth Smith, Junior Fuentes, Bob Novarro and Raymond Jiminez.

The C's will go to Arroyo high school for a league game a week from today.

Over-cautious people are almost as worthless as those who are too careless.

Football Mentor

JERRY BELL

Head of the staff of football coaches at Upland high school is Jerry Bell, a former Chaffey junior college star. He is assisted by Harley Lovitt and Gus Rischer. Coaches of the B squad are Jerry Kehr and Paul White. C. squad coaches are Bill Wolfe and Lloyd Conner.

Given U. S. C. Athletic Scholarship

HAROLD THIENES

Harold Thienes, who was an outstanding athlete at Chaffey high school, is today a member of the U.S.C. freshman football squad, going to the Trojan campus on an athletic scholarship. He will major in physical education.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor A. Clark, 8036 N. Vineyard Ave., Cucamonga and was graduated by Chaffey high school in June.

Playing end for the Chaffey Tigers, he was awarded the honor of being the most outstanding athlete and was given a place on the all C.B.L. eleven.

Band Uniforms For Highlanders Due This Week

Upland high school band uniforms may be seen for the first time in Chino tomorrow night.

Fifty brightly-colored outfits for the Highlanders band are on order and part of the uniforms have arrived. If the remaining trousers are received in time, the school's peppy musical group will be all decked out to officially start the gridiron season.

The uniforms were ordered sometime ago by the student body after funds had been obtained from public donation and through student projects. While the uniforms are not all paid for, the outfits will be worn and the campus activities will produce the balance due, according to officials.

Cucamonga Building Planned On Foothill

Plans for a building to house four offices in Cucamonga will be made by Carl Brancacio if the San Bernardino Planning commision approves a zone change at a hearing this morning.

A site with a frontage of 65 feet on Foothill Blvd. is the proposed location for the office building. The site is on the north side of Foothill about midway between Archibald and Hellman Aves. Mr. Brancacio, who owns the Cucamonga market and its building, said the site had been previously zoned for business buildings but the time limit had expired.

"If the zone change is approved, we plan to construct a building that will be a real asset to the community," Mr. Brancacio said.

Lions Club Of Cucamonga Wins First Prize

Cucamonga Lions club won first place with an exhibit in the feature building at the Los Angeles County Fair, Pomona. The exhibit features grapes and famous wines of the community in an outdoor scene with an old fashioned barbecue pit and the figure of a pretty girl holding grapes.

Lew Kinney was chairman of the committee.

Cucamonga's second exhibit in the building is an excellent likeness of Adlai Stevenson and Estes Kefauver. It is placed on the north side of the building and is beside a similar exhibit of President Eisenhower and Richard Nixon, which is the entry of San Dimas.

Start Grape Crop Harvest

Grape harvest throughout the Cucamonga, Alta Loma and Etiwanda area is under way today. Picking of the crop started on a large scale early this week.

Harold B. Anderson, county agricultural inspector for this area, said the volume of the crop will be about the same as last year. On April 2, a slight frost did enough damage to decrease the volume on the hundreds of acres of vineyards.

A crop of about 65 percent of normal is forecast.

Cucamonga Aids School Milk Plan

More milk at a bargain rate is being provided children of Cucamonga District school in a plan announced by George E. Partridge, president of the school board. Mr. Partridge said the school board is putting the plan into effect to "encourage Cucamonga students to drink more milk for lunch and thereby improve their general health."

The new plan calls for a quantity increase from half-pint to one-third quart cartons, maintaining the low price of five cents for the larger size.

He explained that the new milk program is partly made possible by the "agricultural act of 1954 which provides special federal government funds to reimburse school districts which promote increased milk consumption. The reimbursement is available only for the milk consumed in excess of amounts consumed in the previous year's school term, thereby the full succes of the plan is dependent on an increase in milk sold."

A 20 cent nutritionally complete lunch program, which also includes a one-third quart of milk was also approved by the school board, along with a free milk and lunch program for needy children.

Allura Farm Dairy was awarded the school milk contract and it is specified that milk will meet all state and local health laws with a butter content of not less than 3.8 percent. The state minimum is for 3.5 percent.

Halloween Party For Cucamongans

Members of the Cucamonga Service club, meeting recently made plans for a members' Halloween party with Leslie Foster, Ben Vizio and Victor Arias to be in charge of arrangements. Date will be announced.

A roast beef dinner in the newly opened Cucamonga Community club was served by Cliff Chappel and members of his committees in a recent club contest.

Etiwanda Woman And Five Direct Descendents

Road Races Shown Etiwandans

The Etiwanda Service Club met in the Etiwanda school, Wednesday evening for a business session and a chicken dinner served by the third section of the Ladies Aid Society. Ray Crawford of Los Angeles showed exciting films of the Mexican Road races. There were 25 members present.

Honor Pioneer Henry Klusman

Henry G. Klusman, Cucamonga pioner, who recently celebrated his 65th year in the community, was honored at a meeting of the Cucamonga Service club.

Coming here from Germany as a young man, he soon became a leader in the community and as a construction man, built many of the finest buildings in the area.

100 Year Old Is Honored

Mrs. Apolinar Bermudez, Etiwanda, who was born July 23, 1856 in Jerez, Jaetecas, Mexico, is now visiting relatives in Mesa, Ariz. She plans to return to the home of her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bermudez, with whom she makes her home, after Christmas.

Gay hearted Mrs. Bermudez still lives a very active life according to her niece. "She loves to joke", she said. "She still" helps in the kitchen, washing dishes and she is a fine mender. She doesn't wear glasses, either."

Centenarian Mrs. Bermudez, long a widow, had one daughter, Apolonia Merinda Garcia. Recently when her 100th anniversary was celebrated fn Los Angeles five generations and 200 guests were present. She has five grandchildren, 38 great grandchildren and 29 great great grandchildren.

Testing Of Water Line This Week

Testing of Cucamonga water district lines will be the activity this week.

Sufficient equipment to place the vast system into operation is being placed and Norman Hixson, district manager, said tests would be made this week.

"We may be able to deliver some water next week but we cannot make any definite plans due to the uncertainty of what we may get into during the tests," he said.

All major installations for receiving water from the Colorado river have been made and only minor adjustments remain before actual delivery can be realized, he said.

Cucamonga Awaits Word On Incorporation

Cucamonga's proposed incorporation decision is due soon.

At 2 p.m. Monday in the supervisors' chambers, 316 Mt. View Ave., San Bernardino, a public hearing will be held relative to the application of petitioners for formation of a municipality out of the historic community. Scores of persons are expected to be in attendance on both sides — for and against incorporation.

The area proposed to be incorporated Cucamonga is bounded by the following general lines; The present boundaries of the cities of Ontario and Upland on the west, Baseline on the north, Haven Ave. on the east and San Bernardino Ave. on the south. The petition has been checked by the county assessor and found to have the requisite number of qualified signers representing 25 per cent of the land owners and 25 per cent of the total assessed valuation in the area involved.

The government code provides that owners of property desiring to have their land excluded from the proposed incorporated area submit to the Board of Supervisors in writing a request for exclusion. This request for exclusion should include the reason for an exclusion as well as a legal description of the property. The government code also directs that following the hearing or hearings on a qualified petition for incorporation, an election must follow in the area finally determined by the Board of Supervisors.

In the proposed area are 1,520 property owners and assessed land value is $1,871,110.

Politicians are necessary in a country which permits the people to go to the polls.

65,000 People Coming; We Must Get Ready For Them

With 65,000 people expected to live within Upland's 12 square miles before many years, it is time for the adoption by the community of an over-all plan for development.

We are not talking about zoning but rather a plan that will actually provide adequate parks, a municipal center of sufficient size, an adequate public library building, a big municipal water system and other public services.

School officials are aware of the oncoming increases. Public utilities are constantly expanding and daily we are told by forecasters that we are in the midst of a great changing era in Southern California.

The Upland city council is taking the lead in preparing to consider a long range program. On Oct. 16, the councilmen and others will learn what Riverside started several years ago and how that city planned for it's future growth. Very little, of course, can be accomplished without the wholehearted support of the general public. We believe the residents will give support to a program in planning for a population five times the size of Upland today.

What about parks?

The master plan in general recognizes the need for parks. The next step — and one that should be taken soon — is provision for actually getting sites.

How long can the present library facilities suffice for this community?

Slowly, a little money is being saved for a new building. How about a library site and adequate facilities in the long range plannng?

The city-owned water system has served the community exceedingly well for many years but a growth, the like of which has never been experienced here, is reported to be in the future. Now is the time to plan for expansion — how and where.

The city hall is one of the finest for a small community in the southland but already it is too small. Every municipal department needs more space. Fortunately, the city owns additional property north of the city hall. What shall be the pattern of expansion?

Likewise, with all municipal services, there must be more provision for space and equipment. Even the "city yards" are too small for equipment that is needed for street maintenance, garbage collection, and other services.

Garbage and trash disposal facilities are also a vital problem for Upland of 65,000 people 20 years hence.

And so it is timely for all Uplanders to think of the future and in providing a strong foundation for the ultimate population total.

Parking District Essential For Upland's Best Development

How can a modern shopping center survive in this very competitive era without providing free parking for customer's automobiles?

It cannot.

For that reason the downtown parking district for Upland's central business district is being proposed. Decision on the fate of Upland's downtown shopping center will come on Oct. 4 or soon afterwards. The Upland city council will hold a hearing to receive official objection from property owners and to hear all persons who wish to speak.

Some owners of business property are objecting to the plan. Surely, they are enitiled to their views.

What would you think of a property owner who chose not to have fire insurance? To us, the parking district is business insurance — and the cost is no more in porportion than fire insurance. In other words, an investment of a few dollars a month, will result in about 300 more customers being privileged to park free within a short distance of every parcel of present and potential downtown business property.

With the parking district, Upland's downtown section is destined to develop. Without the parking district, there is little hope of improvement.

Outcome of the public hearing on the parking is, therefore, of vital interest to every resident in the community and every owner of property in downtown Upland.

Ontario Voters Must Approve School Bonds — Or Else

While the first effort to form a Foothill high school district has been defeated, it is likely other efforts will be made. In other words, if in the forthcoming Chaffey election and in succeeding elections, this district does not get what it needs in classroom facilities, a new local district will surely be formed.

Five additional high schools will be needed, according to estimates in the often-quoted UCLA educational report. Of these, only one is scheduled for Ontario. The junior college campus is also to be taken from Ontario and placed on a site north of Foothill Blvd.

It would seem that the big bulk of the new school buildings are going to be in the foothill district. Yet, those of us outside of Ontario, are going to be at the mercy of Ontario voters in providing the money for these out-of-Ontario improvements. Ontario voters can dominate the future school elections due to their numbers.

All of us hope that we can forget about an ill-feeling toward Ontario. If Ontario voters always say "yes" when it comes time to provide more classrooms for the foothill communities, we can surely get along. Judging the future by the past, however, it is doubtful if there will readily be a "Yes".

Ontario voters' defeat of two bond elections in two years is the only reason the movement was started in the first place. The movement will be revived just as soon as students in this area are again denied proper classrooms.

Dr. James Latimer — This Life We Live

The Madness of Being BIG:

Some people seem to believe it to be sheer foolishness to climb mountains. Other people never see a peak without wishing to climb over rocks and through the brush and to sit on the very top with legs stretched out as they view the valleys below. With the poet of old they wish to cry "Excelsior".

However some who make the effort never reach the top. In some cases it is a matter of bodily strength and in others it is the lack of courage to face the big things in life. Some just stop at the timber line and look back while others go on and on. Men ask what there is for them at the top and ever ask if the trails are clear. Such men never learn that the best in life is found in the higher levels and not in following the clear paths and easy trails.

In the matters of spiritual life some even ask what is to be gained by forgiving the one who offends or looking over the snub of one whom we considered friend. There is growth in being big as in the life of humility and meekness. The mountain climber sees but little if he follows only the well-beaten paths. It is only when he emerges from the taller trees and the shrub oaks that he sees the wonders that lie below. The glories of the valley below then begin to emerge and his soul drinks in what his eyes reveal. In our many experiences we also learn the greatness of meekness and of forgiveness, for these are the big things in life.

In the year 1401 a cathedral was begun in Seville, Spain. One can read the plaque nailed to the wall near the main entrance bearing the words of the founder. We read there, "Let us build a church so grand that those who come after us will think we were mad". How fine it would be if we, here and now, could live lives so big that those who come after us would be forced to exclaim, "They seem to have been mad but they built for the coming generations". You will apply this thought to those who founded our cities in this splendid valley of ours, even when it was nothing but desert. They had faith to live by.

The ol' Upland News is bustin' with pulchritude. I expect any day now to see V.V.P., the boss and publisher, show up with a gleaming finger wave.

It all happened like a chain reaction when Mary Stowell deserted her circulation department files for the halls of higher learning. Mary is at that age when musty circulation files are a bore. What she is searching for mostly, like most coeds, is a species inhabiting college campuses.

Corinne Knoll, anyway that was her name until last Friday, decided to help churn up the sea of turbulent matrimony. She had been serving in a series of official capacities including accounting, advertising and engraving. She was as handy to have around as a pocket on a shirt.

Mr. Edwards, nee Pail Flanigan, who handled the telephone circulation turned to the soothing field of massaging pillows for a livelihood. He is now out convincing the nervous public that his offering will vibrate and massage the most hysterical into normalcy.

Stacia Spears showed up to take Mary's place. Stacy is a pert quiet little thing who tends to her knittin' sans the usual feminine prattle. This deletion from the normal uproar is pleasant indeed.

Stacia has taken her place as though an old hand at the game and seems to fit into the picture as naturally as a hole in a sock.

But, I'm getting ahead of my chronological story. First to brighten the office was Eleanor Allen. She started out with all the trepeditions of a bride baking her first cake. Under Corinne's guidance she rapidly made sense out of the jumble that is a newspaper office.

On her own for the first time last week, she came through like a veteran. She is fast making sense out of her multiple duties and will make a valuable addition to the staff in a postion where tolerance is the watchword.

Last week two more Uplanders joined the staff. Nancy Symonds, nee Nancy Hennessy, took over Flanigan's former post. It seems to me like she should still be in high school. I wrote a lot of stories about Nancy and her oratorical ability while she was in school.

The boss has an obsession. A circulation obsession one might term it. There is nothing that will make him soar as high as new circulation being recorded.

I believe any publicity agent could get his material in the paper if he bought a year's paid up subscription to The News before presenting his gimmick. The boss seems to accept added circulation in the same light most accept personal praise.

Nancy handed him eight subscriptions from newcomers after less than two hours work the other day and he beamed like the torch on the Statue of Liberty. All she needs to do to get a big block of voting stock in the concern is to keep up the pace she started.

Out of the recently descended wave of femininity, one was to slave with Ol' Sharps 'n Flats.

Fall

By ERNEST A. DART

Between the summer's heat
And winter's chilling call
Comes that charming bit of season
Known as autumn, or the fall.

When the harvest time is over
And the birds are on the wing
Flying farther southward
To await the coming spring.

When the days are soft and balmy
And the nights are fresh and cool
When children by the thousands
Are flocking back to school.

When a gentle breeze is blowing
And the leaves begin to fall
When the beauty of the forests
Is the crowning touch of all.

When the earth is full of color
And the sky above is blue
When grass and shrubs are sparkling
In the early morning dew.

When the sunset spreads its beauty
All across the western sky
When the brooks and tiny streamlets
From the summer's sun are dry.

Summer seems reluctant
To yield to autumn's call
And winter tries to lessen
The lovely days of fall.

But the great God of nature
Reigns supremely over all
And points out all the beauty
Of the thrilling days of fall.

Upland Girl, Husband, Son On Vacation From Mission

Mr. and Mrs. Cristobal Hidalgo with John Mark, 7½ months. In Quito, where the Hidalgos live, her methods of child rearing were a mild sensation but family and friends are beginning to copy her methods.

On furlough from their work at radio station HCJB, the Voice of the Andes, Mr. and Mrs. Cristobal Hidalgo and their infant son, John Mark are spending a year in California.

Mrs. Hidalgo is the former Miss Marjorie Lindman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Lindman, 2500 Electric St. Mr. Hidalgo, who is a radio engineer, program arranger, announcer and lay preacher at the station is studying at the Los Angeles Bible Institute. Mrs. Hidalgo and the baby go in with him for the week and they all return to the Lindman home weekends.

Life in Ecuador for the young Upland matron has been full and satisfying. She studied business and home economics for three years at Chaffey High school and finished her course at a private school in Los Angeles. She applied for and received a secretarial post at the Quito station after she had completed a religious music course at the Los Angeles Bible Institute. She is now a secretary singer at the station.

Her friendship with her husband began when she first arrived in Quito and he urged her to work at her Spanish conversation.It was furthered by his sisters who became her friends.

She says she has not found it difficult to adjust to Ecuadorian life. It is more correct there as people are not as free as in the U.S.A. Especially this applies to women. Since his father died her husband has become the head of his family and his permission is necessary for his mother to leave the house.

Mr. Hidalgo laughed when we asked him if he applied this rule to his wife. He said he didn't. He is the second generation of his family to be an evangelist.

As Protestants in a largely Catholic country the lot of such workers is sometimes a hard one. He has been stoned and with other workers has been run out of pueblos.

Mrs. Hidalgo said that with the recent change in government, it is expected that conditions will become more difficult but the evangelists will keep on working. The radio station broadcasts throughout the world in 10 languages and is very popular in Ecuador. When it was established 7½ years ago there were hardly any radios in the country. Now few families are without them.

The Hidalgos have many slides and pictures of Ecuador and are willing to appear before groups. Mrs. Hidalgo said they are not confining their appearances to church groups or religious topics and will be interested in talking to all organizations interested in hearing about Ecuador.

H. H. Bowers Home From Long Tour

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bowers, 973 Fourth Ave., are home today from a three month motor trip that took them far up into Canada and to many scenic points in the United States. Among other places they visited Yellowstone national park, Glacier park, Calgary, Banff, Lake Louise and Casper national park. Fishing and sight seing were the principal attractions for the Uplanders.

Too often news is not what happened, but what people think has happened.

Mira Loma Depot Houses Vast Supply System

Mira Loma depot, seven miles east of Upland, contains supplies valued at billions of dollars and much of it can be rushed to serve in emergencies, Steven Capasso, executive officer, told Upland Lions club members in the Upland Woman's clubhouse at noon Thursday.

Also speaking was Major J. M. Povala, who is in charge of the depot, one of many such locations for supplying the armed services. Harland Horak was program chairman with James Colgan, president, presiding.

The depot serves all agencies in the nation's defense program as well as civilian defense. Each of the nine warehouses has 200 boxcars of supplies, Mr. Capasso explained. Each warehouse has 32 doors for use in rushing supplies in times of emergency and the depot location on two mail rail lines, near the Ontario airport and freeway, is recognized as an asset.

Economy is an important factor in operation of the plant and as an innovation under the current defense department, Mira Loma and other such depots serve all branches in the defense program, the speaker said. A minimum of military personnel is on each basis with employment preference given to residents in the area of each depot, Mr. Capasso said.

The Mira Loma depot is one of many such installations throughout the world and the Air Material command is one of the largest "spenders of the defense budget," the official explained and added; "the whole concept of the service is changing to emphasis on economy."

Mr. and Mrs. George Fies, 9403 LaVine, Alta Loma, have returned from a vacation in Honolulu. They flew over to the islands on Sept. 3 and returned Wednesday by the S.S. Lurline.

Bradburns Go To Kentucky

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Bradburn left this week on a trip that will eventually take them to Lexington, Ky. and later to San Francisco.

He has rejoined the Greyhound bus transportation system and will head a new department in the San Francisco office of cost analysis. He is being sent by the company to Lexington for a two month course of special training. Mrs. Bradburn accompanied him and their first stop will be in Chicago and later to Lexington.

They will return here briefly in November before going to San Francisco. Their daughter, Marilyn, is a student at the College of San Mateo. Mr. and Mrs. Bradburn recently returned from the bay area, going there to be with their daughter in transferring from Chaffey and making preliminary arrangements for the San Francisco position.

Mr. Bradburn was manager of the Jack Clark Buick office in Ontario and he had been active in various projects. He is a past president of the Upland Lions club and was secretary of the Chaffey Community Concert Assn.

Miss Siegrist Prepares Guide For County School Teachers

A social studies guide for all elementary school teachers in the county has been recently issued much of the resource information and actual writing being done by Miss Lucy Siegrist of Upland. She is curriculum consultant for all of the schools in the county.

Miss Siegrist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Siegrist, 608 N. Laurel Ave., was paid a high tribute for her work by County Superintendent of Public Instruction C Burton Thrall. As part of her work in preparing the document, Miss Siegrist observed the work of outstanding teachers and also obtained other authoritative material.

The document will now be used as a guide in classroom leadership for the teachers.

Prior to her present position, the Upland woman was at the Mission Demonstration school in Redlands, at which examples of classroom instruction were observed by the teachers in the program of improving their leadership.

Referring to the survey, Mr. Thrall gave most of the credit to Miss Siegrist.

"Miss Siegrist's thorough knowledge of the social studies program was invaluable to the persons involved in compiling and writing materials for the guide," Mr. Thrall said. "Her understanding of the close interrelationship between materials and democratic method is reflected in the theory presented in the guide and the narrative and pictorial accounts of successful practices which show application of the principles.

"In addition to coordinating the work of persons involved in compiling the guide, Miss Siegrist did much of the actual writing. At the same time, she carried a full supervisory load. Much work had, of necessity, to be done after office hours."

Mrs. W. E. Boulton, 406 N. Euclid Ave., enjoyed a recent visit here with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Herndon of Ajo, Ariz. Mrs. Herndon is the former Elizabeth Boulton.

Dr. and Mrs. L. G. Crowley have moved to 728 Purdue Dr., Claremont. They formerly resided at 1085 W. 23rd St.

Mrs. R. E. Baird Home Tester

Mrs. Robt. E. Baird, 313 S. Vine Ave., has been appointed a home tester for General Mills Betty Crocker recipes.

As one of many women throughout the country, she will receive recipes after they have been tested in the Betty Crocker kitchen. After she has followed directions, members of her family will sample the food. Finally she will send in a report on their success, to be tabulated and studied along with those of other home testers, prior to distribution of new delicacies and practical family foods in printed form.

Mr. and Mrs. Baird have five children and she really likes to cook.

A very small honor can puff up a very small individual.

New High School District Defeat Ends Effort

An end has been reached in the current effort to form a new Foothill union high school district but local leaders are today keeping close watch of the developments in a proposed Chaffey high school bond election.

Members of the San Bernardino county school boundary committee voted overwhelmingly last week against proceedings that would separate the historic Chaffey school district.

"If the next Chaffey bond election is defeated, then a new effort will be made immediately to form our own district," W. W. Woodward, chairman of the local committee declared following the committee meeting on the Chaffey campus. The same sentiment was expressed by others.

The forthcoming Chaffey election should call for a bond issue of $10,000,000 and only this amount will provide a solution to the classroom situtation. Mr. Woodward said.

A. H. Utman, Etiwanda, who is chairman of the Chaffey high school board of education, emphatically declared there was no assurance Ontario voters would approve funds when the time came to place a high school in Etiwanda. He argued for formation of a new district so that local people could better control administration of the building funds.

Robert Hickcox, Etiwanda, Joe Seitz, John Nicholson, Philip Runnels and Arthur Bridge were among others who spoke. Mrs. Raymond O. Kay, Upland school board member, offered a resolution calling for the county committee to recommend to the state formation of a new district. A vote on this resolution was defeated 13 to 4.

Supporting the resolution were representatives from the elementary school boards in Upland, Alta Loma, Guasti and Mt. Baldy. Cucamonga and Central Cucamonga boards voted to remain a part of the Chaffey district.

General sentiment favored staying with the Chaffey board in view of the filing of the UCLA report and approval of that report by the Association of Commerce and Industry.

If the amount in the proposed bond issue is not "sufficient to provide a solution, defeat of the bond issue can be anticipated."

Enlarged Skating Rink Serves Uplanders

After being closed one week Upland Roller rink in the park re-opened Friday night, after being enlarged. James Larkin, manager, reported skaters were enthusiastic about the enlarged space and there were 180 on hand. Pictured above is the enlarged rink, as seen from the south west corner. The rink will be open to the public Fridays, 7 to 10 p.m. and is available for parties on other days, Mr. Larkin said.

The News To Be Part Of Conference

In recognition of The Upland News' being among the best equipped weekly newspaper plants in the state and in recognition of The News' circulation coverage, a representative of this community's newspaper will be on a panel in Berkeley Friday and Saturday.

Vernon V. Paine, publisher of The Upland News, will be on a panel at an editors' workshop at the University of California, Berkeley. He and Mrs. Paine will leave here this afternoon.

The conference for all of the Newspaper Publishers Assn. Production equipment, circulation, news coverage and editorials will be discussed at the two-day session.

Yesterday Today and Tomorrow

By GERRY McGEER

Two sad events, in close sequence, have publicized the Upland Police department.

Let it be understood at the outset that what is written here is not a criticism of any of the officers involved. It strikes me though that the events, one of which almost ended fatally, should focus public attention on the care of women who are put in jail.

In one case, it is alleged a woman was arrested with difficulty. She fought, when apprehended, on Foothill Blvd. and it took thre officers to get her into the patrol car.

As is necessary in such cases a matron was on hand when she was booked. She was put into her cell and later one of the officers on duty found her hanging unconscious from the bars of her cell. His timely appearance saved her life.

The other woman, also charged with intoxication, became difficult after she was jailed. When she wasn't given a cup to drink from she caused some damage in the jail with the result that she was charged with two additional counts. The cells have a two way faucet which can be simply changed to a drinking fountain. It strikes me that an intoxicated person might find it difficult to manipulate even the simplest device and the frustrated woman possibly thought the officers, in not providing a cup, were being unpleasant.

We're not justifying the acts which put these people in jail. In the first place when the police found the first woman she was in danger of being run over by a stream of cars.

We do think that in the case of intoxicated people it would be more humane to protect them from themselves by giving them more care after they are jailed.

It has happened in some other communities that people arrested as drunks have been ill and have actually died soon after being jailed.

Drunks can be pretty revolting. They also, in many cases, suffer great remorse. They need care and it would be a worthwhile move for the city of Upland to provide stand-by matrons who are on duty at all times when women, drunk or otherwise are jailed in this city.

It might even be a more Christian policy to put them in a hospital for the night where care will be assured. Another method would be to take them to their homes and have a team of qualified volunteers on hand to deal with them whether they are to appear in court. As in other fields, where crime is more serious, modern methods are in the direction of correction and prevention. A fine or a jail sentence, possibly a deterrnt the first time, won't stop the habitual drunkard.

There is always the possibility of an accident occuring while one of these people is in jail that will cost the city far more money than protective care would cost over a very long period.

NOT ELVIS

Well, the girls who squeal for Elvis won't run into any opposition from me! I first learned about him when daughter wrote from Canada. I gathered that she was not one of the squealers. Her querry was of a, "For Heaven's sake, Mom, what goes on down there?" tone.

You see, having fewer TV stations in Canada they pick up many of the popular U. S. ones in all fields, even to and including performers like Elvis, if there are any more. Elvis is popular. Five million records is a lot of records to sell in the brief space of time he's been breathing into the hot eyes of his enamored fans. Because she heard him I realized that there are squealers in Canada, too.

In the brief time I watched him I realized that the young man has three of the most important attributes of the vocalist. He sings well. He has good breath control and he knows how to project his voice. I decline from particularizing on the details of his personality projection. I don't think it would be ladylike. For me a little of Elvis is enough.

The TV went to another station and I was edified by a scientific talk.

I think Elvis puts on his act because it goes over with the chicks who like to flutter and squeal. In an earlier day they'd all be reaching for the smelling salts. They hadn't learned to vocalize their palpitations.

Not long ago I read that numbers of extremely talented young Americans are taking Europe by storm. Their appearances are so prevalent that in some countries the native performers are complaining and trying to stop them.

Actually they don't get the money they could earn in America. The article said they couldn't even get work at home. They do get appreciation, contracts and the joy of performing over there.

There's hope that some day there will be an increased demand for their high quality talents on this continent.

I hope so.

Ball Point Pens Now At Post Offices

Ball point pens are now included as part of the equipment at post offices, including those in Upland, Alta Loma and Cucamonga.

The postmasters reported the popular type of pens had been added as a new service to patrons of the local offices.

The trouble with most minds is that they are unused.

IN MOTOR TRANSPORT GMC LEADS THE WAY

GMC shown at right is Model F350 fitted with 16-foot van. It's powered with a 140 h. p. six-cylinder engine — has over-size axles rated at 4,500 lbs. front; 14,000 lbs. rear. It's designed for 18,000 GVW truck-work. The smaller truck at left is GMC's popular ½-ton pickup with a 130 h. p. six-cylinder power plant.

Why settle for less than Blue Chip performance?

It doesn't take a new GMC owner long to spot the difference—especially if he's just switched from another make truck.

Take the way every Blue Chip GMC is "engined." An ultra-modern power plant gives him flashing response, sparkling road-pace—and record fuel economy.

Hydra-Matic* is another eye-opener. Right away he appreciates its time and effort saving in traffic. And later on, he cashes in on the big maintenance savings.

And every trip he can carry a bigger load. For GMC chassis are rugged—GMC axles are extra-capacity.

So he hauls more—and hauls it comfortably. GMC cabs are man-size and deep-cushioned. Recirculating ball-bearing steering makes handling free and easy. Close-quarters parking's a cinch with Safety Power Steering.*

And at every stop, a Blue Chip GMC attracts admiring attention. With that distinctive boulevard styling, it's a smart advertisement-on-wheels for any business.

One for your kind of truck-work? Our truck specialists will help you select just the Blue Chip model that will do your job most profitably. And our truck servicing experts always stand ready to help you keep it a Blue Chip top-profit-maker. Drop in and get acquainted!

Six Classrooms Being Built At Baldy View

Watched with interest by many parents and others is the construction of the third unit of the Baldy View school, W. 11th St. Six additional classrooms will be made available with completion of the new unit early next year.

"The Baldy View school has a short but lively history and certainly a very promising future," observed Superintendent of Schools, Harold W. Cook.

The first unit of the Baldy View school was built during the spring and summer of 1954. This facility consisted of two kindergarten classrooms, five regular classrooms and an administrative office.

Mrs. Ralph Mitchell was named principal of the new school and worked with a staff of nine teach-year. The average daily attendance for this school year was 269.

An excellent Parent-Teacher Assn. was organized during the spring of 1955 with Mrs. Walter Stewart serving as president.

The school year 1955-56 saw the attendance increase to 297 with a teaching staff of 11.

The second unit of the Baldy View physical plant was completed during the summer of 1956. Earle T. Casler, an Upland resident, was the contractor. This construction project included four regular classrooms, offices for the director of education and the school psychologist, storage facilities and a teachers work room.

Present enrollment at the Baldy View school is 385 with a teaching staff of 12.

Mrs. Wm. Fitzsmmons, president of the P-T A and her executive board, are working enthusiastically on the many fine activities planned for the 1956-57 school year.

P-TA Gets Big Assist From Father's

Upland and Sierra Vista Parent Teacher groups by working together to cut expenses hope to make the carnivals they hold this year more successful than ever. Formerly the P-T As have rented booths in Ontario for use on grounds during events that have become traditional as major fund raisers.

This year P-T A fathers are taking a hand. They are making all booths necessary and they are making booths that may be taken apart and stored when not in use. The booths are of clear lumber and wire.

Work parties have been doing the job in the rear of the Arthur Lichti home, 1072 W. 15th St. One of the biggest work days, and the start of the project was Sunday when many jugs of lemonade were needed to cool off the enthusiastic workers who brought power tools along to sped up the work.

Mrs. Vaughn Dunlap, president of Sierra Vista and Mrs. Wm. Fitzsimmons, president of Baldy View have both expressed appreciation of the work being done by fathers.

P-T A fathers participating in the work are Chet Haug, Paul White, William Thomas, Daryl Owens, Fred Zimmerman, Bailey Wishard, Art Lichti and Vaughn Dunlap.

Baldy View's carnival takes place on Saturday and will include a dinner.

The affair at Sierra Vista is scheduled for Sept. 29.

CYO Plans Style Show

Annual Picnic For First Ford Agency

Friends who were formerly associated in the first Ford Agency established in Upland, held their annual reunion picnic in Upland Memorial park Saturday. The reunions were instigated by Lenard Smith in 1955.

"When we worked together we played together," he said. "We had many picnics in the parks, trips to the beach and in the mountain resorts over weekends. Many of the best times were enjoyed in a cabin at Camp Baldy which belonged to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lamb. It was washed away in the 1937 flood."

Reminiscent of old times, Mr Smith said, was the freezer of homemade ice cream brought by the Earl Scritchfields and he and Mrs. Smith, proving they had not lost the art and the pie and cake baked and brought along by Mrs. Floyd Chambers.

Others attending this year were Messrs. and Mmes. Frank Martens, Chauncey Depue, Sam Lamb, Ralph Almquist,, Mrs. Mildred Puckett, Floyd Chambers and Roy Thudium. Mr. Smith reported that since 1921 seven of the former workers have passed away.

Dick Chamberlin Follows Father's Inventive Trend

Inventing comes naturally to young Dick Chamberlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Chamberlin, 354 Winn Dr.

Mr. Chamberlin is the inventor of the electronic musical instrument the Chamberlin, now being manufactured in Upland. Dick has chosen another field. He describes his wooden automobile and trailer as an invention and he is supported by his friend and helper Mike Thoma, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Thoma, 376 Winn Dr. Mike explained that Dick made up the plans and had the ideas and he was the helper.

The car, of a quite novel design, which can't be described as streamlined is, nevertheless, a very neat, well constructed job. The trailer, in which large cartons have been utilized, is fitted for casual snacking, napping, and relaxing. It can be detached from the car and the car, when detached, has a second purpose. The boys put it into taxi service in the neighborhood.

Lots of inventors spend their lives inventing but not reaping. Both the Chamberlins understand that the commercial side of inventing is important.

The Chamberlin, manufactured by Dick's father, costs and is being sold at a cool $10,000. Dick and Mike aren't in quite as high a bracket with their invention. But they do quite a lot of business. At two cents a ride in one day recently they made all of 80 cents.

Boys Do Workmanlike Job As Builders

Demonstrating the usefulness of their handiwork, Mike Thoma, left, and Dick Chamberlain, right, have a cooling drink from the trailer of what they describe as Dick's "invention." It actually is a very well built car and trailer. The car serves a double purpose. Unhitched it becomes a neighborhood taxi and has been a source of revenue this summer for the two young hustlers.

Thrift Talks by don herold

no matter what happens

It's never a mistake to save money.

I've tried to save a little money more or less, every year since I was 20.

I've been through two wars, afew booms and several depressions Iv'e never been sorry I saved.

I like Euclid Savings & Loan for savings because they are 29 years old, have assets of nearly $8 million, and because they re-invest savings in safe reducing mortgages, mostly on homes, in this part of California where you can see the homes — and where the money helps this section grow.

The earnings (currently 3½% per year) help make you glad you're saving instead of spending.

Each savings account insured up to $10,000 by an agency of the U. S. Government.
